By CHARLES W. SWAN. This is a busy week for the amateurs Many leagues will hold meetings, start ing with the Department and Northwes Sunday School circuits today. The Departmental League will hold an important session. President C. C. Clark, of the league, stated last night that to day's conference would be a most im-portant one and that the schedule would most likely be adopted. most likely be adopted.

It was rumored yesterday that this circuit was about to blow up. Moffet Bradley, of the Postoffice team, stated to a Washington Herald representative that he would have nothing to do with the Postoffice team this season, and also remarked that the league looked to be going under. Another official of the league, Harry Kays, of the Interior Department team, remarked that he would not handle the Redmen this season, and that if it was left up to him, the In-terior Department would not have a team.

This looks like the annual "blowing up of the Departmental League. Every spring this report is circulated, but when the proper time comes, Uncle Sam's clerks will be found on the white lot, batting that old baseball around.

Secretary Shurtleff of the Amateur Association stated last night that the Capl sociation stated last night that the Capi-tal City League had been organized with four clubs in line, namely, the Bankers. American Ice Company, R. P. Andrews and the Cornell Tigers. Just where the league will play is not known.

A meeting of the Suburban League will be held Thursday night at the residence of J. T. Stewart. 4068 Eighth street, northwest. This meeting has been called to organize the league. Managers of clubs desiring franchises in the circuit are re-quested to be present at 8 o'clock.

The Emerald Athletic Club will make a strong bid for a franchise in the Central League. This fast little ball club, under League. This fast little ball club, under the leadership of C. B. McClure, has been working out every day and will be in the best of condition when the league season starts. This club will make a good team for the Central League. The boys are hustlers, as their record in athletics will show, and the officials of the Central League could not do better than to award the vacant franchises to the Empered. one of the vacant franchises to the Em-

A meeting of the Amateur Association had been called for Friday night at Spalding's store in Fourteenth street. Managers of clubs, presidents of leagues. and all those interested in amateur base-ball are urged to attend this meeting. The rules will be adopted, officers elected and other matters taken up.

Secretary Shurtleff, of the association, has written President Watson, of the Potomac League, requesting him to have representative at the meeting Friday fuse to comply with this request, steps will be taken to ascertain just what stand it will take in regard to joining the association. A limit will be set by which time all leagues must become afliated with the association, and then, will be up to the Potomac League.

Theatrical circles amused over the announcement that Hampton and leaves it to the doctor's discretion whether to make the fact known after his death or not. After Gray's death the doctor hesitates to make use of the confession, inasmuch as Hampton's slayer has passed beyond the fear of any earthly punishment and to besmirch his name would only injure the innocent. While the doctor still hesitates, the young couple take things into their own hands, and settle his doubts by marrying.
